Chairman Carter's Story.

One of the tersest and best of the election stories is related by Chairman Carter of the National Committee. "It was getting rather late in the evening of election day," he said, "and we were anxious to hear something definite from one of the most important districts in Indiana, which had not reported for several days. I telegraphed over my own signature to the leader of the district: 'I have had no news from you. Please let me hear at once and report fully. Send me a hundred words or so on the actual state of affairs.' In about an hour I got his reply. It read: 'We have all gone to bed—out here, and it don't take any hundred words to tell it, either.'—Philadelphia Record.

The success of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in effecting a speedy cure of colds, croup and whooping cough has brought it into great demand. Messrs. Pontius & Son, of Cameron, Ohio, say that it has gained a reputation second to none in that vicinity. Jas. M. Queen, of Johnston, W. Va., says it is the best he ever used. B. F. Jones, druggist, Winona, Miss., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is perfectly reliable. I have always warranted it and it never failed to give the most perfect satisfaction." 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

The Bank Eclipse, which cleared from Nainimo for San Francisco, has changed her destination and gone to Honolulu, says the San Francisco Call of a late date.
The Legislative Assembly was crowded this morning with people eager to know what the new Cabinet would be. It was noticeable that none of the Reform members were present.
Nine creditors proved claims amounting to $2019.33 against Geo. K. Norton, before Judge Frear to-day, and E. A. Jones was appointed assignee under $1000 bond. A. Rosa was petitioner's attorney.
The Call says the shipments of gold coin from San Francisco to Honolulu in December aggregated $100,000, adding, "This is to buy new crop sugar, which will be coming along freely in a few weeks."

A haul of 1200 tins of Hongkong opium, valued from $10,000 to $12,000, was made on the S. S. Oceanic while she was in San Francisco this last time. United States Marshal Gard, at Los Angeles on Dec. 28th, sold $600 Manila cigars and eighteen cases of gin which were seized by Collector H. Z. Osborne at Santa Barbara last summer on the schooner Glendale, having been smuggled from Honolulu. The cigars brought $50 per thousand and the gin $18 per case.

NAVAL NEWS.

The U. S. Cruiser Boston to be Succeeded by the Mohican.

The Boston will be the next ship to come to the Mare Island Navy Yard, but will not leave Honolulu until the arrival of the Mohican, which is about ready for sea and will leave the yard soon after the arrival of the commander-in-chief of the squadron.
Admiral George Brown, U. S. N., will be detached from the command of the Pacific squadron upon the reporting of his relief, Admiral J. S. Skerrett, U. S. N., on the 10th of the month.
Admiral Brown has been granted a three months' leave of absence from that date. He will probably go to his home at Indianapolis to seek a much-needed rest. His residence is what might be termed "next-door-neighbor" to President Harrison's. They are firm and fast friends. The admiral has greatly endeared himself to those under him, from the fleet captain down to the powder monkey in the smallest ship in the station. Always kind, thoughtful and considerate, he will leave behind him a name and record to be envied.
Lieutenant Dwyer, his flag lieutenant, will go East about the same time as the admiral.
Captain B. F. Day has been ordered to command the U. S. S. Boston. He will leave San Francisco on February 3rd, for Honolulu. Captain G. C. Wiltze, the present commander, has been ordered to return home and report arrival.—S. F. Call.

Samoa's Plight.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Dec. 16.—For the next three months no official salaries are to be paid in Samoa, even those of the Chief Justice, and the President of the Council not being exempt. The prevailing destitution is the cause. Public bankruptcy impends and appeals for outside help are to be made soon. The authority for these statements is the Sydney Telegraph.

THE LEGISLATURE.

170TH DAY.

FRIDAY, JAN. 13, 1893.

Morning Session.

The Assembly, the fifteen members present thereof, came to order at 9 A. M. for prayer, President Walker in the chair. Clerk McCarthy waited patiently until 9:55, to read the minutes of the previous meeting, but no quorum being present, President Walker at that hour declared an adjournment until 2 P. M.

Afternoon Session.

The Assembly convened at 2:45, and the Clerk, by order of President Walker, read a message from Her Majesty to the effect that She had appointed the following gentlemen as the members of Her Cabinet, viz.: Hon. Samuel Parker, Minister of Foreign Affairs; J. P. Colburn, Esq., Minister of Interior; Col. the Hon. W. H. Cornwell, Minister of Finance; Hon. A. P. Peterson, Attorney-General.

The President questioned the Ministry as to their having taken oath of office; answered in the affirmative. The clerk then read the minutes of the 169th day, a quorum being present.

Rep. Bush asked if the Ministry had any report to make of bills signed by the Queen.

Minister Cornwell reported the following:

Bill 247, to provide for the distilling of liquors.
Bill 248, to amend Section 69 of the Judiciary Act.

On motion the House at 2:55 adjourned until to-morrow morning.

Illustrated Concert.

There was a goodly attendance, notwithstanding doubled price of the organ recitals, at the illustrated concert in Kaunakapili Church. Mr. C. Hedeman operated the stereopticon, showing many symbolic and biblical pictures. Mr. Wray Taylor accompanied the views with appropriate music on the grand organ. He played "Aloha Oe" as a splendid picture of Queen Liliuokalani was thrown on the canvas as the first one. Every verse of Heber's missionary hymn, "From Greenland's icy mountains," etc., was presented in the form of a page from an illuminated gift book, with a scene illustrative of the words, while a quartet choir composed of Misses Kulamann Ward and von Holt and Messrs. Geo. E. Smith and S. E. Pierce sang the hymn. Miss Ward also sang "Home Sweet Home." To the pictures of a big farm house rather out of repair and of the interior of one of the "palaces" midst which "we may roam," whose "pleasures" on this occasion were being taken out in a masquerade ball, while a homesick divinity student dimly regarded the scene from the stairs.

Views from the "Village Blacksmith" were spontaneously applauded. Mr. E. Ellsworth Carey recited the passages fitting the pictures. Cloud and marine effects of great beauty were exhibited, angels and statuary being introduced. Mr. Hedeman also presented some of his own make of slides in Hawaiian scenes, which are equal in execution to any foreign manufacture. The "good night" salutation, bordered with moving kaleidoscopic checks, was very striking.

More About the Coloma.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—I have been secreted in a cave on the sea side of Diamond Head during the past three weeks and piped off the whole business (confederates supplied the big dailies), and my feelings may be more easily imagined than described when the P. C. A. reached me this morning, and not a word of comment concerning the unexpected departure of Mr. Geo. Lycurgus by the Mariposa yesterday. The P. C. A. has certainly neglected their dear public's deep sea interests, and that is my reason for giving the whole business away so here goes. During the past three weeks a large sailing ship has been laying off and on between Molokai and Lahaina. Yesterday the Mariposa's life-boat was lowered away and G. L. was pulled rapidly toward the sailing ship, and, horrible to relate, the steamer Vainanalo had just cleared the Custom House at Lanai with a load of live stock (wild turkeys). The little steamer labored heavily and was down by the bows. All this time a lady in a buggy was seen driving backward and forward under the shadows of Leahi, and a little later the hero of my "over true tale" was rowed ashore, and had a hawser in his pocket, which he made fast around the lady's waist. The Coloma was still in sight, and Mr. Lycurgus was in the buggy and looked as if he had something in tow.

A PHILOSOPHIC MAIDEN.

Ring out, wild bells, to wilder skies,
The flying cloud, the frosty night;
Leap year is nearly out of sight;
Ring out, wild bells, I've lost the prize.
Ring out the leap, ring in the plain,
Ring out the bells across the snow;
Leap year is going, let her go—
Ring, wedding ring, I'll try again.
—Edw. Fitz Green.

NO TIME TO SMILE.

When the sky is all dark and forbidding,
And the raindrops incessantly pour,
The joke of the stolen umbrella,
Doesn't cause us to smile any more.
—Washington Star.

REPEATING HIS CANVASS.

Grover, but just through his canvass,
To avoid an awful crack,
On a ducking trip went southward,
And thus got his canvas back.

The Lottery Bill.

EDITOR BULLETIN:—It is a matter of deep regret to all conservative and honest citizens that political schemers should have fastened upon the Lottery Bill as a means, by the passage of which, to overthrow the late Cabinet. No more foolish and unwholesome scheme has ever been sanctioned by our Legislature, either in the present or in any previous session. It is undoubtedly true that many unthinking persons, dazzled by the alluring promises of its organizers, have expressed themselves in its favor. Yet no sensible person will consider that a measure, which simply secured its passage by the timely vote of a man who was so disgracefully drunk as to be incapable of knowing his right mind at the critical moment, is one which represents the true sentiment of the people.
No measure, even though it secures the necessary number of votes to legally entitle it to be placed on the statute book if signed, should ever become a law when passed in such a disgraceful and dishonorable way. And it is to be hoped that Her Majesty will take this into consideration as well as other weighty reasons against its passage, such as the objection to allowing the establishment of an unscrupulous monetary power in the country, powerful enough to overshadow even the Throne itself, wealthy enough to bribe the Legislature, and unscrupulous enough to do it, if necessary to gain its ends, and that she will relegate it once more to the calm consideration of the Legislature who will, if they really want it, readily pass it again. And if, as most people believe, it was only passed as a political trick, it will then clearly be seen that the sentiment and strong desire of the nation is against it and in favor of only good and honest means of raising revenue and promoting prosperity. So mote it be.

A New Gun.
WASHINGTON, Dec. 24.—The United States war vessels are to be equipped with a new and formidable weapon. The Bureau of Ordnance of the Navy Department has perfected the design of a 7-inch rapid-fire gun, which it thinks will successfully utilize some of the recent results attained in experiments with high explosives. The gun is composed of two pieces only, the tube and jacket, and it weighs but about that of a 6-inch, 40-caliber, high-power gun. The projectile which the gun is designed to carry is a tubular projectile of 200 pounds weight with a bursting charge of from fifty to sixty pounds of high explosives. It will be of the rapid-fire type, with fixed ammunition. The gun is a decided departure from the rapid-fire guns now in use, and is destined to create a stir in ordnance circles. It will be the largest gun of the rapid-fire type ever constructed. The largest in existence at present is the 3-inch rapid-fire gun with which some of the new cruisers are armed. These are larger than any of the same type in use in the foreign navies.
